The guitar tab is organized into five systems, each with six lines representing the strings (D, C, G, C, G, g from top to bottom). Chords are indicated by letters above the staff: C, F, G, and H. Fingering numbers (0-7) are placed above notes. Techniques such as pull-offs (Po), slides (Sl), and hammer-ons (H) are indicated. A double bar line is used to separate the first and second endings at measure 9.
