The musical score for "Dew Drop Waltz" is presented in a single system with nine staves. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and the time signature is 3/4. The score is divided into two main sections, A and B, indicated by large letters at the beginning of their respective staves.

Section A: This section spans the first five staves. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of three sharps, and a 3/4 time signature. The first staff contains the melody and is labeled with a large 'A'. Below the staff, the text "(Guitar bass notes)" is written. The second staff continues the melody and includes a double bar line. The third staff features a triplet of eighth notes and is labeled with 'E' and 'F#min'. The fourth staff continues the melody and is labeled with 'A'. The fifth staff concludes the section with a double bar line and is labeled with 'D'.

Section B: This section spans the remaining four staves. It begins with a large 'B' and a double bar line. The first staff of section B is labeled with 'A' and 'F#Dim'. The second staff continues the melody and is labeled with 'A'. The third staff features a triplet of eighth notes and is labeled with 'D'. The fourth staff concludes the section with a double bar line and is labeled with 'F#'.

The score includes various musical notations such as treble clefs, key signatures, time signatures, notes, rests, triplets, and dynamic markings like 'Dim' (diminuendo) and 'min' (diminished). Chord symbols (A, F#Dim, E, F#min, B, D, C#min) are placed above the staves to indicate the harmonic structure. The piece ends with a final double bar line on the ninth staff.
